

Elk Grove Village Police

Youth Citizen Police Academy

Join the Elk Grove Village Police Department for our Youth Citizen Police Academy!

We are currently accepting applications for the 2024 Youth Citizen Police Academy.

When: June 24th – June 27th

8:30 am - 12:30 pm (lunch will NOT be included)

Where: Elk Grove Village Police Department, 901 Wellington Ave.

Requirements: Attend Mead of Grove Junior High Schools

Cost: FREE

This program provides an opportunity for students to learn about law enforcement and develop a partnership with the police department. Through this one-week academy, students will acquire knowledge through both classroom instruction and an interactive curriculum surrounding the law enforcement profession. The academy is not a boot camp or a program for rebellious teens or youth who have behavioral issues. It provides area youth with a unique learning opportunity with their local police officers. On Thursday, there will be a graduation ceremony where students will be presented with their Academy Certificate.

Application forms are available through the School Resource Officer or on the Elk Grove Village website: elkgrove.org/academies

Curriculum Summary for Academy Participants

- Police Department Tour
- Patrol Operations /K9 Unit demonstration
- Traffic stops / Police Encounters
- Response to Resistance / Decision-Making
- Internet Safety / Crime
- Crime Scene Investigations/Evidence Collection
